

Ministry of Truth!

I have a little quiz for you. Please write your answers in the space provided and turn them in by Friday. This quiz will constitute 50% of your final grade. (Remember that?)

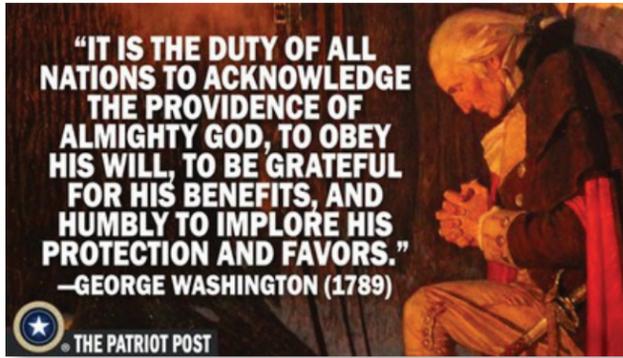

Do you have opinions? You may have guessed that I do. I bet you do, too.

Do you have strong standards of Right and Wrong and do you get upset when others violate what you KNOW is Right? I bet you do. I sure do (surprise)!

Last question on this little quiz: Have you always been fairly comfortable that you have a right to your opinion and a right to express your opinions and convictions openly?

Oops, there is another question: Have you noticed an increasing reluctance on your part to say openly what you believe about certain subjects, fearing to be labeled "racist", "bigot", or one who indulges in "hate speech"? Yes, I have felt that reluctance, also.

Since the stupid China virus created the whole Covid19 panic, those of us who knew we were being played and that the "experts" were spewing bull-oney at us were excoriated, barred from public discourse, and limited in our freedom of movement. Those of us who dare not to be "vaccinated" feel like we must tiptoe into places apologetically, hanging our heads in shame and sorrow that we have dared to challenge the accepted false narrative that these injections are safe and effective.

As you undoubtedly are aware, Twitter and Facebook acted as censors on behalf of the government (and still do), making it easy for the government to shed responsibility for the censorship. Donald Trump and many other conservatives were put in Twitter or Facebook (or YouTube or Google) jail for a timeout or even permanently.

Along came Elon Musk, of Tesla (electric cars) and SpaceX (private rocket launches) fame, who had the cash and the determination to buy Twitter in order to remove its destructive censorship of opinions not acceptable to the Ruling Elites and to restore freedom of thought and speech on its platform. His actions are stimulating a firestorm of reaction on the Left, who panic at the thought of you and me freely expressing dissent.

Government Disinformation Board Determines All Criticism Of Government Disinformation Board To Be Disinformation.

From The Babylon Bee

Interestingly, as the government saw itself losing Twitter as a front for this censorship, "President" Biden announced the creation of the Disinformation Governance Board to be headed by Nina Jankowicz, an avowed Trump-hating leftist who participated in the "Russian disinformation" witch hunt against him. Real objective and non-partisan, huh? Here are a couple of quotes from my favorite sources.

[Jen]Psaki told reporters on Monday the overarching objective of the Disinformation Governance Board "is not to adjudicate what is true or false in a nonpartisan and apolitical manner. . . . The focus is on disinformation that threatens the homeland, as I noted—things that would incite violent extremism, you know, human traffickers

LV Chamber of Commerce

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATION

10AM
Monday
May 30th

Lucerne Valley Memorial Park
(Just west of the post office)

Disinformation Board Detects High Levels Of Disinformation Coming From Mysterious White Building In Washington, D.C.

From The Babylon Bee

and other transnational criminal organizations, any efforts at malign foreign influence, anything that would endanger individuals during emergencies." (Not the Bee, 5/3/22)

Just remember, this administration called parents objecting to bad policies at school board meetings "violent extremists", so that tells you a little more about their true motivations.

"The officers of the federal government have sworn oaths to defend the First Amendment but, instead, treat free thought and free expression as threats to their power. They do not respect dissent. They do not protect (as is their duty) unsanctioned political protest. They actively work with private companies to censor speech and opinion. They actively work with tech monopolies to manipulate public opinion and propagate blatant lies. They actively spy on the American people. They harass and intimidate those who have the courage of their convictions. They criminalize the constitutional rights of citizens and commit crimes under the color of their constitutional authorities. . . . If America is to survive, we must not misunderstand this serious moment. Americans must not let their freedoms slip away in silence. The Rubicon lies ahead, and the federal government must turn around before it's too late. Those who would abuse their power can silence any one of us at any time, but they cannot silence all of us at all times. Do not go quietly." -- J.B. Shurk, American Thinker, 5/2/2022.

We are the targets of this "Ministry of Truth". We are the ones whose opinions not only don't count but according to those in charge, threaten the stability of this nation with our violent hate speech. Really? Standing up for our Constitutional rights in Bill of Rights – freedom of speech, assembly, religion, etc. – is now hate speech.

Things have changed radically, dear friends, quickly and furiously. This is no longer the United States of America where we were born, raised in "one nation, UNDER God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." That's a joke now.

Even as I write this, I know that both the federal and state "Ministries of Truth" may decide that I have no right to say this and command me to cease and desist. If/when that happens, will I have the guts to say what Peter and John said before the Jewish Council (Acts 4:19-20): "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard."?

At this amazing, scary time of the loss of our culture based on God's Spirit and laws, we must take comfort in knowing that God's Spirit does not depend on the American Way being healthy. We take our comfort in the eternal, unchangeable Creator of the Universe and our own Father, who knows each one of us by name. Whatever happens here on earth does not matter at all, as long as we are His. Wow!

How Light Is Your Touch?

Ray Bentley Ministries

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS
We honor Pastor Ray's life by continuing to share the daily devotions he prepared for you, his precious readers.

"And everyone went to his own house. But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives."

—John 7:53-8:1

Once Jesus left the comfort of His home with Joseph and Mary, He became a homeless person. He traveled the countryside, preaching, teaching, and ministering. He often found His way back to the Mount of Olives, where I believe He spent many a night huddled under an olive tree, often cold and exhausted.

When an enthusiastic scribe told Jesus he would follow Him anywhere, Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head" (Matthew 8:20).

When Jesus told the rich young ruler to sell his possessions and distribute them to the poor, He meant, "If you want to follow Me, you will have to give up the comforts and security of this world."

When I think about Jesus, the Savior of the world, curled up under an olive tree, sleeping alone, I realize that He gave up security and

From Psalms 91:

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

And from Psalms 46:

Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!" The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Linda Gammel

Local Carpenter Continues To Spread Disinformation Deemed Harmful By Religious Experts And Govt. Elites.

From The Babylon Bee

On The Lighter Side . . . Contributed from the Web

If it looks like a duck, walks like a duck,
and quacks like a duck...
according to Facebook fact-checkers, it is, in fact, a squirrel.

VISIT PATRIOTPOST.US FOR THE BEST HUMOR AND MEMES

WELL, THERE IT IS. A GAS GENERATOR BEING USED TO CHARGE THE DEAD BATTERY IN AN ELECTRIC CAR. MY DAY IS COMPLETE.

TOP ANALYSIS, MEMES, AND CARTOONS AT PATRIOTPOST.US

comfort as an example to us.

We too can let go of what this world has to offer, keep a light touch on it all, and allow the Kingdom of God to take precedence.

That's a tough assignment in a culture driven by material need.

But He taught us to pay attention to the poor, the hungry, and the needy, because He understood their plight.

"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me," He said. He also said, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me" (Matthew 25:40,45, NIV).

Jesus spent His last night on the Mount of Olives praying for the strength to finish what His Father had sent Him to do. His disciples fell asleep, leaving Him alone.

Once again, He identified with those who struggle, as He wrestled with what was to come. He could have commanded an army to save Him. He could have said, "Enough!" and gone to find a nice home and live a "normal" life. But He didn't.

He stayed, praying to His Father, "Your will be done."

"It is impossible for a man who is warm to understand one who is cold." —Alexander Solzhenitzyn

